

HIS WORD TODAY
by Rev. William J. Reilly

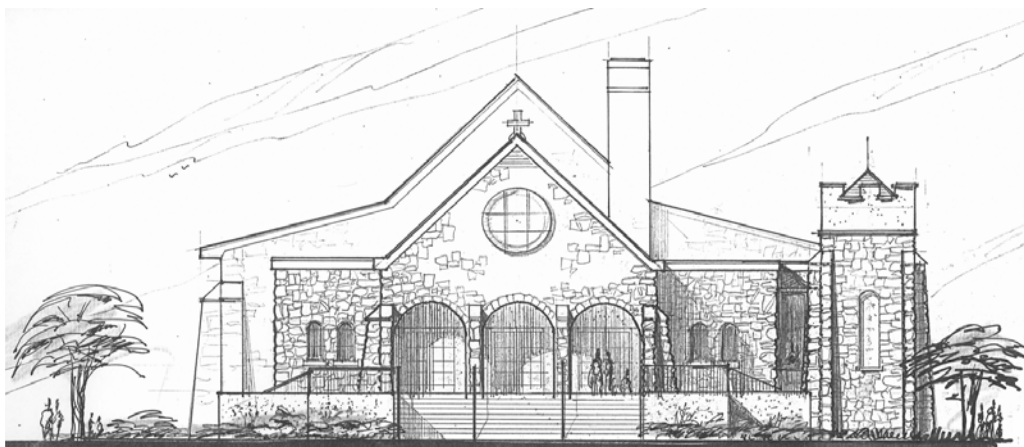

Fifth Sunday of Easter
April 29, 2018

“When Saul arrived in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing he was a disciple. Then Barnabas took charge of him and brought him to the apostles, and he reported to them how he had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus... The church throughout all Judea, Galilee and Samaria was at peace. It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers.”

We are familiar with the encounter and conversion of Saul on the road to Damascus. This passage tells us something of the struggle for acceptance by the Christian community in Jerusalem. Barnabas spoke in his behalf to the disciples, and then to the apostles. Paul presented his credentials. The Holy Spirit was at work.

What a great lesson for us today, to be sure that we are welcoming communities. Most likely on a weekly basis people visit our parish church for the first time. Some have recently moved into the community, some perhaps have been away from the church for some time. Others say now is the time for me and my family to become active. How ready are we to reach out, to invite and support those who come to our community. Pope Francis is constantly teaching us to go out to the streets, take a risk, feel the bruises as did Paul. Not sure what to do?

Look what happened to the great apostle.

THE SOCIETY OF
ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

"I am the good shepherd...I know mine and mine know me" says Jesus in today's Gospel. The Good Shepherd is concerned about, cares for and protects the sheep and fulfills the obligation of relationship. This relationship requires of us disciples to "lay down our lives". Shepherding is serious business. It means that we cannot run away but rather commit ourselves to good deeds, such as caring for the sick, feeding the hungry, clothing the poor, forgiving those who wrong us and loving others as God loves us. Those good deeds are the very "stuff" of our everyday living and loving-in our families and in our service to the poor. To those served, Vincentians are expected to give the same deep and serious thought that they give to their own families. Sharing does not consist merely in the distribution of material goods; it also implies that our personal resources and potential of mind and heart, of time and influence, are placed at the service of others. Sharing means taking part in the joys and sorrows, in the worries and hopes of others. It equally involves a readiness, on the part of members of the Society to accept help, suggestions, advice, encouragement and collaboration. We are all poor in one way or another and that is perhaps what draws us closer to one another and to Him who is the Good Shepherd and who consented to share our humanity.

If you are interested in learning more about Vincentian "good shepherding" please come to one of our meetings which are held on the first and third Tuesdays of the month at 7:00 pm in Msgr. O'Connor Hall (church basement). Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, May 1, 2018.

Message from Fr. Bill

Today I wanted to give you an update on the Ecumenical Community Garden and encourage you to join this great endeavor. The garden is located on part of the land behind the convent, near the garage. Recall that it all started with an Eagle Scout project in the fall of 2016. Then, in the late spring last year, the garden was expanded and our first growing season yielded about 640 pounds of vegetables that were given directly to the Ecumenical Food Pantry and St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry. Last fall we started another expansion project which is still taking shape thanks to the garden volunteers and two terrific partners, Jaeger Lumber of Belmar and Allenwood Organics, and also several other people who made kind donations of soil and other supplies.

Jaeger Lumber donated the wood for the raised bed addition that is currently being constructed. Without hesitation, Jaeger Lumber wanted to support our community garden and gave us the wood we are using for the expansion project. I am truly grateful for their help. The staff was helpful and kind. (Should you be having need in your expansion projects: They are located at 800 12th Ave., Belmar. Visit them at www.jaegerlumber.com)

Allenwood Organics has been a partner with us since last year. They have a great business philosophy. They believe everyone should be able to garden and everyone should have a garden that will work for them. With that in mind, they work with people of all ages and abilities to create a great space to grow vegetables and flowers. A picture says a thousand words, so go visit them at www.allenwoodorganics.com and see the work they do and can do for you.

The volunteers for the garden are not only from St. Denis, but also the other churches in the Manasquan Ministerium. The Ecumenical Garden is such a great way for us to show our solidarity in the Body of Christ and to live the call of Jesus: whatsoever you do to the least of my brothers and sisters you do unto me. It is a fun and happy time too. I ask adults of our parish to email me if you are interested in helping with the garden this growing season. We do work in small groups a few different times during the week and people can choose the day/time that works the best to come over for an hour or so and be in the peaceful and fruitful garden. With the expansion of the garden, we need more help for sure. Beginners welcome! With the presence of Master Gardeners from Monmouth County, we keep learning about best practices and we keep experimenting with new crops all in an organic environment. I am happy to say that our community garden will be on the tour of community gardens for Monmouth County taking place July 14th. That day we celebrate St. Kateri Tekakwitha (whose stained glass window is in our church and who is, amongst other intentions, patroness of ecology and the environment). Let us ask for her prayers for the success of our ecumenical growth as well as the growth of the plants in our garden for the good of our neighbors in need and for the glory of God.

FOR THE LOVE OF GOD... PRAISE & SING-
 Come, praise our Lord with contemporary Christian music. 30 minutes of prerecorded music with lyric sheets provided. Every First Friday at 7:00 pm in St. Denis Church. For info call Allison Penkethman 732-528-4976.
