

HIS WORD TODAY
by Rev. William J. Reilly

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 20, 2017

“The foreigners who join themselves to the Lord, ministering to him, loving the name of the Lord and becoming his servants, all who keep the Sabbath free from profanation and hold to my covenant, them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer... for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.”

In this age of xenophobia, anti-Semitism and racial tensions in the world in which we live, Isaiah summons us to think, ask for forgiveness and discover the Christ in the vulnerable, the hurting, the poor. Pope Francis calls us to discover the Christ and also reflect the love and compassion of the Lord for others.

The words of scripture and the teaching of the Holy Father, are directed to every catholic, every catholic community of faith. The rich history of Catholicism in the United States reflects growth through the gifts brought by every immigrant group. The gospel of Jesus Christ accompanied those who migrated, bringing rich traditions, deep faith and a desire to build the kingdom of God. May we be the welcoming community of faith, learning from others, supporting them in their need and celebrating our unity in diversity.

MESSAGE FROM FR. BILL

I thank all involved in our second annual Recovery Awareness Weekend. As you may have seen, our approach to recovery is broadening to a recovery of whole health of the person. A new initiative that you will be reading about in upcoming bulletins is the "Daniel Plan" which involves a healthy approach to eating as a person of faith. Whatever the addiction, we are loved by God and St. Denis Parish is here to offer prayerful support and information for help in recovery. Please call Eileen Ziesmer in the office for any information you may have missed if you were unable to be there last weekend.

I ask that you join me in praying for all our college-bound students. May God bless them with a great semester. I also ask you to join me in praying for all the seminarians from our diocese, including Kevin Ludwig, from our parish. May God bless Kevin and all the seminarians, and may many more men respond to a life of service in the Church as priests and deacons. I asked Kevin to share his recent retreat experience with us, and so I invite you to read his "View from the Pew" in this bulletin.

View from the Pew - "Retreat Back to God"

No matter where each one of us is on our spiritual journey, it is helpful to reflect on the past, enjoy the present, and have hope for the future. The seminarians of our own Trenton Diocese, myself included, went on a retreat the other week. We "retreated" from the everyday busy work, school, internet, cell phones, TV, family joys and arguments, and all the other worldly distractions that occupy our time. We took a "time out" for one week to recall that God and our relationship with Jesus is the source and reason for our lives, and our number one priority. At the Loyola Center in Morristown, NJ, we got to meet the new seminarians, prayed together, shared meals, and played music together. It was fun and peaceful! Not only seminarians, but all of us could use a retreat back to God. It doesn't happen unless we take the time to do it though. Treat yourself by Retreating yourself!

Our retreat speaker, Fr. Pablo Gadenz, who is from our diocese and teaches at the Immaculate Conception Seminary in South Orange, spoke of two things that especially caught my attention: Prayer and the Cross. We were reminded that prayer (communication) is our relationship with our Lord. Here's a comparison. How does a married couple do if they are not communicating? Right. Next is the Cross. Jesus had a large wooden one, but each one of us has different small crosses and at times large ones. Ideally we could embrace our crosses as Jesus did. Short of that, we surely must accept our crosses. In the words of Thomas A. Kempis, "in the Cross is salvation, life, protection from enemies, infusion of heavenly sweetness, strength of mind, joy of spirit, highest virtue, and perfect holiness. There is no salvation of soul nor hope of everlasting life but in the Cross! If you share in His suffering, you shall share in His glory. If you die with Him, you shall also live with Him. Take up your cross, therefore, and follow Jesus, and you shall enter eternal life." (Imitation of Christ)

It has been good to be here with you all at St. Denis this summer. As I begin the new academic year at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, I will be praying for you all. Please continue to pray for and encourage current and future seminarians of the Diocese of Trenton. Thank you and God love you!

The Rectory Office will be closing at noon on Fridays until September for in-service work. The office will be open to parishioners:
Monday-Thursday,
8:30 am-12:00 noon & 1:00-pm -4:30 pm

ST. DENIS CHURCH- THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DEPAUL

The Gospel today announces that the kingdom and salvation are for all people. It is our persistent calling out to Jesus and our faith that count, for Jesus always responds. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul responds with love with Jesus for your neighbors who have nothing.

It has been over 800 years that women have had a public role in the Church. Just like the Canaanite woman of great faith, the Lord has blessed the St. Denis Conference of SVDP with women volunteers of great faith. Thank you Jesus for blessing us with these wonderful women. In our day, Divine Providence has called these women to take up the crucial work of caring for the poor. God has called upon them to dispense many alms and be like mothers to the poor children. By the grace of God, these good women have responded to these needs with great warmth and steadiness

Our next scheduled general meeting will be Tuesday, September 5, 2017 at 7:00 pm in Msgr. O’Connor Hall. The St. Denis Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul has its general meetings at 7:00 pm, the first and third Tuesdays of every month. All are welcome to attend.
