

HIS WORD TODAY
by Rev. William J. Reilly

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 17, 2017

“Forgive your neighbor’s injustices, then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the Lord? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself can he seek pardon for his own sins?... Remember your last days, set enmity aside, remember death and decay, and cease from sin. Think of the commandments hate not your neighbor, remember the Most High’s covenant and overlook faults.”

When we consider the word power, we might think of electricity, strength, or brute force. The greatest power available is not material, physical or even emotional. The greatest power resides in every person, yet often goes unused.

The scriptures today reflect that power and it is found in the word forgiveness. Every person has the power to forgive. In our world beset with hatred, war, discrimination rarely do we resort to the use of this power. We are set on dominating, getting even, putting others in their place. We judge, presume intentions and motivation, yet fail to see the splinter in our own eye. The power to forgive is a gift for use, for my own well being and for others.

I recall a wise old priest who directed others to ‘look the other way’.

MESSAGE FROM FR. BILL

Our first Youth Group meeting was great! 25 students from 8th grade to High School came to the kick-off event and were generous in reaching out to each other, literally in the "human knot" ice-breaker, small group discussion, and sharing ice cream and cake. I am grateful for the whole thing, for the students and the adults who were there in generously giving of their time to make it such a success. Our next meeting is Sunday, September 24th from 6:00 pm-7:30 pm in the cafeteria, so share the info!

Thank you all for your generosity in this week's collection for the people of the Parish of the True Cross, Dickinson, TX, Diocese of Galveston-Houston affected by Hurricane Harvey. And thanks for your notes of support that we will send down to them this week with the moneys collected. With Hurricane Irma happening so quickly on the heels of Hurricane Harvey and our special second collections, the Bishop has written that he does not want to have another special collection for those affected by Hurricane Irma, but rather, Bishop wants to point you directly to Catholic Charities, where 100% of your donation will go to hurricane victims whom you wish to help. Donate By Mail: To mail a check, please make your check payable to Catholic Charities USA (name particular hurricane) and mail your check to: Catholic Charities USA P.O. ST. DENIS CHURCH- THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DEPAUL

The challenge in today’s Gospel is to forget how others have behaved toward us and to look to God’s way of loving and forgiving. Our focus must be on God. Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul...we want to help!

Recently we received a thank you note from a neighbor who we helped financially with rent and utilities. Also we provided this neighbor with furniture through the new SVDP outreach “Vincent’s Legacy”. The neighbor was the first in our area to benefit from “Vincent’s Legacy”.

The thank you goes out to all of our donors, who make it possible to help our neighbors. Here is that thank you note: “Everything has been going great. My life has completely turned around since you have helped me. I’ve worked almost every day this summer so far. Thank you so much, your prayers came true. You made my summer and the start of a new positive life for me. I couldn’t be happier”.

Vincent’s Legacy furniture ministry is a special works project initiated by the SVdP Trenton Diocesan Council. Vincent’s Legacy was established to provide gently used furniture and household goods to our neighbors in need throughout the Diocese. Currently the items are housed in a warehouse in Wall Township. It provides limitless opportunities for volunteers to get involved in a wide range of ways with minimal time commitments. If interested please call our hot line 732-223-1383.

Our next scheduled general meeting will be Tuesday, September 19, 2017 at 7:00 pm in Msgr. O’Connor Hall. The St. Denis Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul meets at 7:00 pm, the first and third Tuesdays of every month. All are welcome.
