

HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William J. Reilly

Pentecost Sunday

May 19, 2024

“In contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified their flesh and its passions and desires. If we live in the Spirit, let us also follow the Spirit.”

The Pentecost event with wind, fire and noise are familiar signs of the coming of the Holy Spirit. There are other signs for us today to discover the presence of the Spirit in our lives in the church. They are the fruits of which Saint Paul spoke to the Galatians. In chapter 5 he enumerates nine signs, the fruits of the Spirit.

Take a moment to reread them and look into your hearts to see if they are present. Consider a spiritual friend and see if they reflect these gifts. This week, take one each day, and discover ways to see, seek, and manifest God’s gift and fruit in your life. ‘Let us follow the Spirit.’

THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel, Jesus once asked "who are you looking for?" Perhaps it is happiness we seek, but sometimes we are looking for happiness in selfish ways. However, we also find that when we look for ways to make others happy or a bit more secure, it is then that we become truly happy and witness Gods' love. The Vencentian Society collaborates with other people of good will in relieving need and addressing its causes. As you give your gift or your time to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering and you give them reason to believe and trust.

If you would like to donate to our ministry checks can be made payable to "SVP/St. Denis Conference" and placed in the shopping cart in the gathering space of the church (envelopes available). At the Beach Chapel, please drop them in the collection basket.

If you need assistance, please call the hotline at 732-223-1383

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER BILL

TRENTON MAKES...PRIESTS!

The new slogan for vocations in our diocese takes its inspiration from the "Trenton Makes the World Takes" sign on the bridge over the Delaware River, which is within a few blocks of St. Mary's Cathedral which is the "Mother Church" of our diocese, and the church in which all priests are ordained and sent out to mission in the four counties of the diocese. The new priest for vocation awareness and recruitment is Fr. Christopher Colavito. The new social media initiative on Instagram is: @TrentonMakesPriests and you can reach out to Fr. Chris at Vocations@Dioceseoftrenton.org

We pray for the 12 men who were ordained permanent deacons this week and also the one seminarian who is ordained a transitional deacon (before his priestly ordination next year). We also pray for Rev. Mr. Wynne Kerrige and Rev. Mr. Brian Meinders who are transitional deacons that will be ordained to the priesthood on June 1st.

For those men interested in learning more about the vocation – no pressure, just to learn about it, and be more invigorated in your own journey of faith – there will be a "Come and See" Vocations Mass & BBQ on Tuesday, June 11 at St. Robert Bellarmine Co-Cathedral. Mass will begin at 4pm followed by the BBQ and activities/discussion at the rectory. The event will take place rain or shine. I really encourage anyone ages 16-40 that might be interested in joining the event to contact me at the rectory, so that I can sign you up.

Please don't forget about the opportunity to take part in the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage. It will pass through the Diocese of Trenton May 28 – 30, and you are invited to participate in the activities the diocesan committee has planned. We are part of the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton route, which will pass through 19 dioceses, making 120 stops on its way from New Haven, Connecticut to Indianapolis for the National Eucharistic Congress July 17 -21, 2024 (<https://www.eucharisticpilgrimage.org>). Social Justice Learning Experience

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church's Justice & Peace team is partnering with Manasquan Friends to offer a Racial Wealth Gap Simulation on Saturday, June 1, at 2pm in Holy Trinity's Fellowship Hall. The simulation is an interactive tool that helps people understand the connections among racial equity, hunger, poverty and wealth. It's a good first step for people unaware of structural inequality. It is also valuable for those who seek a deeper understanding of the economic impact of each policy that has widened today's racial hunger, income and wealth divides. To sign up for the event, please contact Holy Trinity 732-223-0523.
